

Claim No. 120.

Under Article 4. Treaty of 14th June, 1866.
with Creek Indians.

The undersigned, Jack Bruner, q. c.
a Freedman, of the Creek Nation, Widower, being duly examined and sworn, (he understanding and conversing in the English language,) deposes and says. —————— Whilst living on his place on Little River, Creek Nation, and sometime in the Spring of 1864, he made his escape therefrom, and went to Gibson with a Detachment of Union Troops that were near by his home, on a Scout -
That before he left home the Stragglers and lawless bands of Indian Soldiers had robbed him of nearly everything he possessed, and the little which remained to him he was compelled to abandon when he went away, not being able to take anything ^{with} him: That he remained in the Refugee Camp near Gibson until the close of the War, and then returned to the Nation.

That, at the commencement of the Rebellion, he owned and possessed, and was robbed of, and compelled to abandon all the property, hereinafter stated, and never recovered
the same or any part of the same: To day

7 Seven Horses.	at $\frac{2}{5}$ \$75. each	at $\frac{5}{6}$ \$60. each.	\$ 450.00
100 One hundred Hogs.	at $3. each		300.00
250 Two hundred & fifty bushels of Corn @ $1.			250.00
House Furniture, Provisions, on hand ($35) &c			100.00
making a total value of			$ 1,100.00

Eleven hundred dollars.

Further this deponent saith not.

Awards

The loss of property specified above is deemed established by the foregoing testimony. Also the status of the claimant. The amount claimed, however, is, in some instances, considered excessive. Upon inquiring, it is found, the value of the different kinds of property, at the time the loss occurred, ruled as follows:-

Horses: $20.00 Each.

Hogs: 2.00 "

Corn, per bushel, .50 "

and for the following one-half the claimed value:

House furniture, Provisions on hand, &c. $50.00

In consideration of these, and all other facts attainable, bearing upon the case, we believe it just and equitable, to award this claimant-

Jacob Bruner, Five hundred and fifteen dollars.-
